

Any homeowner who sells a house must make the buyer aware of any work which was completed without required permits or inspections on the realty disclosure form.